FROM SAM MAGES... On Monday a group of 11 will be coming from Dallas. The plan is to plant a garden even though as I write this I'm not sure that it will be ready due to the heavy rains. There is a small gully that the tractor has to cross in order to get up to the garden property. This week rock and gravel were dumped and spread out on the incline. The tractor was able to work on Wednesday. On Saturday, we plan to work with the master gardener to make a planting plan for when the group comes. I guess there is nothing like taking things to the very end, not my preferred way to work. I pray that you are well. Thank you for your generous support and prayers.

STEWARDSHIP REPORT...for September 7th: $2, 622.00 in envelopes; $56.00 in loose; $1,058.00 electronically, $150.00 to Saint Bonaventure Mission & School, and $1,595.00 to the Altar Society for the Marilyn Grasser Memorial. Thank you for the generous, faithful and sacrificial stewardship that supports the life and ministry of Saint Andrew Parish, the Diocese of Dodge City, and the Universal Church.
