Adorers of the Blood of Christ believe in the reconciling love of Jesus Christ. Every ASC Sister is an “adorer-apostle,” focusing on the “dear neighbor,” as our founder, St. Maria De Mattias, would say, and placing ourselves as a presence of compassion wherever the need is great.

We strive to be a bridge between contemplating the mysteries of faith and dedicating ourselves to action in the modern world. We pray and work to transform the world into what our founder called “that beautiful order of things which the great Son of God came to establish in His blood.”

The Sisters have opened missions in Guatemala, Tanzania, Liberia, Bolivia, Argentina, Guinea Bissau, the Philippines, the former Siberia and Albania as well as foundations in Korea and India.

In 1992, five of our missionary sisters in Liberia were killed by soldiers in the army of Liberian warlord Charles Taylor during a civil war that left hundreds of thousands dead.

Let us keep the Sisters and all missionaries in our prayer. Remember a some portion of each Sunday’s offering goes to the support of the Sisters and other missionaries around the world as part of our Diocese-Parish Stewardship.
