MANNA HOUSE...basket is in the vestibule by the east bulletin board. We may place non-perishable food items and other useful items such as toiletries in the basket.

AT EASTER VIGIL...we had the privilege of baptizing Brandi, Braden, and Quinlan Simon. We were honored to renew our baptismal promises with Katie Albers and welcome her into full communion with the Catholic Church. We also celebrated confirmation with them all and welcomed them to the Lord's table as together we celebrated Eucharist and receive Easter Communion. We congratulate them, welcome them, and thank them joining our Catholic journey as members of the Body of Christ.

IF YOU WANT YOUR EASTER BASKET BLEST...place it in front of the altar before Mass. Baskets will be blest at the final blessing and as part of the dismissal from Mass.

EASTER EGG HUNT...follows immediately after Easter Sunday Morning Mass.

RELIGIOUS FORMATION...features "Mercy at the Movies", movies about mercy, Wednesday, March 30th. All movies begin at 7pm. Enjoy a movie...and then ask: Where did I see mercy at work? What does this movie show me about mercy? If you are viewing at a home, please give them a call ahead of time. You might want to bring your own popcorn and drink. At the parish center, popcorn and drinks will be available, but not the usual Wednesday meal. This is one of our special events for the Jubilee of Mercy. There are options for all ages. Please the flyer with information included with this bulletin.

Artaban is the Fourth Wise Man of the Christmas story. He has three precious gifts he wants to give to Jesus, and on his journey to try to find Jesus he gives each gift away to someone in need. Mercy is particularly illustrated in his treatment of the people in the leper colony. Artaban's mercy is more pronounced when compared with his servant Orontes and his lack of mercy.

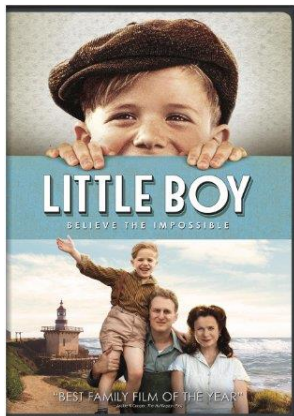

While not rated, appropriate for both children and adults.

7pm, March 30th, Parish Center
Host: Gary Stein

A British Army officer is captured by the Japanese during WWII and sent to a POW camp, where he is tormented and forced to work on the Thai-Burma Railway. Decades later, still suffering the trauma of his wartime experiences, Lomax and his wife Patti discover that the Japanese interpreter responsible for much of his treatment is still alive and set out to confront him. It is a powerful and inspiring tale of heroism, humanity and the redeeming power of merciful love.

Host: Greg Lix

In a heartwarming tale of faith, hope and love, a little boy tries with all his might to achieve the impossible: bring his father home from war. Set in 1940s California, "Little Boy" follows a—to put it in modern politically correct parlance—vertically-challenged kid as he copes with his father going off to war and the racism and nationalism that go along with such a traumatic experience. The film is suitable for children. It does deal with the harsh realities of prejudice and has off screen violence. The film invokes emotions as it looks at faith and the world.

Rated PG-13.

7pm, March 30th, Parish Center
Host: Regina Lix

The classic story of loyalty, trust, and sacrifice comes to life in this live-action adaptation. Fern is one of only two living beings who sees that Wilbur is a special animal as she raises him, the runt of the litter, into a terrific and radiant pig. As Wilbur moves in to a new barn, he begins a second profound friendship with the most unlikely of creatures – a spider named Charlotte – and their bond inspires the animals around them to come together as a family. When the word gets out that Wilbur's days are numbered, it seems that only a miracle will save his life.

Walt Kowalski is a widower who holds onto his prejudices despite the changes in his neighborhood and the world around him. Kowalski is a grumpy, tough-minded, unhappy old man who can't get along with either his kids or his neighbors. He is a Korean War veteran whose prize possession is a 1972 Gran Torino he keeps in mint condition. When his neighbor Thao, a young Hmong teenager under pressure from his gang member cousin, tries to steal his Gran Torino, Kowalski is drawn against his will into the life of Thao's family.
